CMLARR

Fostering Sustainable Infrastructure Delivery & Growth

The Centre for Excellence in Management of Land Acquisition, Resettlement and Rehabilitation (CMLARR), Administrative Staff College of India (ASCI) has been leading the capacity building interventions on Land Acquisition, Resettlement and Rehabilitation (LARR) for specialist officers in the South Asian region. The Centre, established with the support of the World Bank in 2013 provides technical support to government/public/private institutions in addressing social risks in investment operations, developing technical guidelines as well as in planning/implementation infrastructure investment operations across the length and breadth of the country. The Centre has also expanded its operation by engaging with governments and educational institutions in several countries including China, Uganda, Egypt, Kenya, Tanzania, Somalia, Sri Lanka, Afghanistan, Nepal etc. Among the prominent international assignments of CMLARR include the Annual Announced International Courses; Customised courses on LARR for Ministerial delegation from Government of Uganda, Egypt, Kenya etc; Curriculum Development Workshop for Uganda and Kenya, Support to World Bank in the Technical Assistance for Land Acquisition Policy and Institutional Reform in Egypt; South-South learning event on R & R and Benefit Sharing; Technical support for Training of Trainers in workshops organised by World Bank in the South Asian Region etc.

The Centre has conducted over 150 capacity development programmes on land acquisition and resettlement for more than 5600 officers from 130 client organisations. The Centre has been providing support to the Department of Land Resources, Government of India and various State Governments in the implementation of the 2013 Land Acquisition and Resettlement Law. The Ministry of Road Transport and Highways, and Ministry of Railways, Govt. of India are partnering the Centre for conducting customised courses for national highway and railway projects respectively. The Centre has an institutionalized partnership with Coal India, the largest coal producer in land and resettlement capacity building (both announced and dedicated courses). Customised courses on effective planning and implementation of land acquisition and resettlement have been organised for several state governments benefiting more than 1600 revenue department officers across 25 State Governments and 2 Union Territories.

CMLARR is an empanelled expert institution for conducting social impact assessment studies. The Centre has led several consultancy studies on social impact assessment; end term impact evaluation of LARR Implementation; environmental and social audits; land records quality assessment, innovative practices in assembly of land, development of training modules/manuals for multilateral development banks etc.

VISION

Emergence as the global focal point for capacity building, policy advocacy and operational expertise in Management of Land Acquisition, Resettlement and Rehabilitation.

MISSION

Sustaining excellence in all areas of LARR from pre-project planning stage to post-implementation evaluation phase including Procedural and Legal framework, Social Impact Assessment (SIA), Resettlement planning, Livelihood restoration.

OBJECTIVES

- Promote comprehensive understanding of legislative framework, impact assessment procedures and operational knowledge to plan/ implement/ monitor resettlement action plans/livelihood restoration plans.
- Facilitate sharing of experiences in LARR/benefit sharing in South Asia & globally in collaboration with interested organisations.
- Create technically qualified pool of professionals equipped to deal with the LARR processes in an effective manner;
- Create network of LARR professionals for promotion of dialogue and sharing of dissemination of best practices.
- Support policy development/development of technical guidelines relating to LARR.

Alumni Reflections (Participants of National/International Courses)

Am pleased to inform that the course I attended at ASCI on LARR Act, 2013 from 5th to 9th Oct. 2015 was extremely useful to me as well our 14 officers. We could get much more clarity on various provisions of the Act and innovative practices adopted by few States/Organisations. The Course Director is proficient in the subject. I thank ASCI for providing the opportunity.

The label of being ASCIian bestows an esteemed privilege, and the collaborative endeavor with fellow ASCIian's transcends mere fortuity, constituting an ineffable augmentation. Profound gratitude is extended to all adherents of ASCI house team under the dynamic and professional leadership of the Course Director for making the program purposeful, covering all aspects of the subject. The commitment, dedication and expertise of the Director of the program was not only unparalleled but full of technicalities, however dealt in a complete organized manner. The program trajectory was exemplifying with its quintessence to its zenith of excellence. Kudos to the Course Director and her team for unwavering dedication, steadfastly championing the ethos of ASCI throughout the Course.

The training was absolutely superb and I genuinely benefited from it. The content was extremely informative and incredibly useful. I have attended several trainings before but I cannot recall any of them having such a strong impact.

I still relish the beautiful training Course organised by CMLARR. Our problem with Land Acquisition magnified with building National Highways becoming first priority of the new govt. But with CMLARR around, I think we can handle it with more confidence. Indeed the ASCI training was the best I have received during my career spanning more than a quarter century.

The designed module and the topics covered were really eye opening even for persons working for considerable time leaving alone individuals like me, who has got transferred recently to the land department. Your explanations were not from theorems from a book, but were full of practical visualisations of the situations arising during implementations. Today, I was thanking my Director for giving me this opportunity. Thanks a lot for most valuable information shared with us. I look forward to get associated with experts like you in my future endeavours.

In these five days of session, we have had the most engaging intense conversations on the LARR Act, 2013 as you helped us unravel the operative part of Act as per its sections. The explanations, exercises, examples, elaboration of case laws, by you with untiring enthusiasm helped us to understand the subject. Many thanks to you for your guidance. Many of us might seek your advice in future when faced with any problem/doubt w.r.t to the subject as we feel assured of your support. Thank you to all the guest speakers too for enriching us with their knowledge.

January 2025

Land Acquisition laws and its interpretations are being done all over the country in a very haphazard manner. I feel it is only at CMLARR that it was presented in a form wherein we can put it across confidently now. It is now, we know its strengths as well the handicaps, justified in the most apt manner. It was a training organised at optimum level to full benefit.

Greetings from the city of temples - Bhubaneswar! This experience is certainly for life. Good learning's at good place with even better resource persons make one's experience worth it. 4Thanks to CMLARR for arranging such a wonderful training program on the latest act on the block - Act on Land Acquisition and R&R. I just want to highlight below my take-away(s) from this beautifully coordinated program in a nutshell.... Activity based learning - I think it was never monotonous when it comes to lectures and talks as the whole program was so beautifully scripted with live examples. - The Interface between "Experts / Researchers / Policy Implementers" and "Participant Government officials / learners" - And what clicked the most is the entire program was in the similar lines of a modern B-School Management Development Program; far away from the stereotypes. To keep my opinion straight - I'm sure the learnings will come in handy in a big way in all our respective professional spheres.

On behalf of the Somalia team, I would like to thank you for the excellent delivery of the international course. You introduced us to pioneering work and internationally renowned pioneers who along with you opened our minds to new possibilities and novel ideas. The balanced approach in combining class work and field work was very appropriate for our needs. For many of us, including colleagues from the other participating countries, this was one of the best short professional courses ever attended. The lessons shared on the preparation of key safeguards instruments and their implementation will definitely change our approach in dealing with many issues.

On behalf of the World Bank, I would like to thank Administrative Staff College of India for hosting us and for your warm generosity. It was a herculean task to arrange a week-long international workshop including field trips for over 100 participants. You and your team did a superb job facilitating this event and creating an open environment for all of us to exchange valuable experiences and learn from each other. Thank you for hosting what I hope will be an evolving international network of professionals committed to sustainability.

Alumni Reflections (Participants of National/International Courses)

We are writing to thank you for the successful support that CMLARR, ASCI has been extending during the course of the last year to support in the Technical Assistance that our team has been managing for "Supporting the Land Acquisition Policy and Institutional Reform in Egypt". This started with the Study Tour that the Egyptian Delegation has conducted to Hyderabad in March 2016 until the recent outstanding contribution of ASCI to the Dissemination Workshop and Sector Guidelines Training that took place in Egypt on May 7-11, 2017. CMLARR has been playing a great role for the success of the various events including delivering sessions on social impacts assessment and inventory surveys that were very highly received by the participants.

The Course content, experienced resource persons and interactive sessions all we did were very useful. Many doubts have been cleared. The course will be helpful for discharging and carrying out my roles as LAO again better I can Confidently hope. I also Thank Collector Sir for his suggestion to contact you for discussion and permitting me for the e-course. Thank you so much Ma'am. My staff also sat with me as and when found time, they also are happy to have cleared many of their doubts. If possible this could also be organised for field staff.
